Contract Fact

Article XI.C.1 Curriculum development and changes

1. The Board is ultimately responsible for curriculum throughout the District. Curriculum shall be developed by professional staff with input from the community. Substantive curriculum changes shall be critiqued and developed by practicing teachers. All curriculum committees shall contain a majority of practicing teachers. Educational programs that are not part of the regularly developed curriculum shall be implemented only after consultation with the teaching staff so that input from all affected personnel can be gathered and considered. Such programs shall be evaluated at the end of each year by the involved teaching staff.
